

BPL will negatively impact emergency communications. Use of BPL would be a flagrant imposition of known interference to all users of the HF spectrum. DSL, cable modem, and satellite transmission of data are sufficient to insure competitive approaches. BPL is unnecessary and would damage existing communications.